

Leaders of New York society at Newport. Left to right—Reginald Hutchinson, Mrs. Oliver Cromwell, Oliver Cromwell, Mrs. Hutchinson and Donaldson Tucker. The photograph was made in the Casino.

Photo copyright Underwood & Underwood.

Dr. Preston Satterwhite and Mrs. Rogers Benjamin Pratt on their way to the Casino and apparently quite untroubled by the torrid weather.

Photo copyright Underwood & Underwood.

At left in oval—Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffern Tailor arriving at the Casino. Their Newport summer home is "Honey-suckle Lodge."

Photo International Film.

Lady Beatrice Granard, who will spend the remainder of the summer at Newport with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills.

Photo Press Illustrating Service.

At left—Mrs. Henry G. Gray and Countess Di Zappola, the latter formerly Miss Edith Mortimer.

Photo copyright Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Ward Douglas of New York and her son Barkley. The youngster is already launched on a tennis career.

Photo International Film.

Gen. Cornelius Vanderbilt and his daughter, Miss Grace Vanderbilt, watching the Australian-American tennis matches.

Photo copyright Underwood & Underwood.

Mme. Irma de Boney, obviously very keen on championship tennis and looking forward with delighted anticipation to the matches.

Photo copyright Underwood & Underwood.